

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday May 9, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Math trips up 6th-graders
Judge questions Ayers plan
Inmate tents proposed as jail solution
State: 'Dealing fairly' with land
Snow after death penalty reversal
Nonprofit Delta agency's leader indicted
Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Gambling industry convenes on Coast
Doctor: Malone didn't die in jail
Judge has doubts about Ayers plan
Jammed Alabama jails dump inmates on state
Court asked to overturn murderer's conviction
Michigan hopes high pay will lure South's teachers
Senator: Prisoners should make tags
Taxpayers deserve much better than 'close enough for government work'

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Biggers offers criticism of proposed Ayers settlement
Health strategies

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Judge has recused himself from law firm's cases
New driver's license facility dedicated

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Natchez robs gaming fund for insurance
City's decision to settle may leave bad taste
Read Our View

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Fleming defends academic cuts to USM faculty
Tourism pros sell Pine Belt to Canadian golf writers
Are revenues increasing? Who can say?

stateline.org

Alabama Languishing In Changing Economy
US Study Shows Preschool Helps The Poor

Times Picayune

Saints want stadium by 2006